

Schuyler

- Timeless details in unique proportions give this design its eclectic edge.
- Adding glamour to the entry, the dining room features a hutch space.
- When entertaining, the den with double doors makes a wonderful companion to the dining room.
- Bayed windows brighten the breakfast area which is open to the kitchen with a peninsula snack bar.
- A porthole window set under a double gable end naturally draws attention to the entry below. Sturdy columns were designed to announce the beautiful front door adorned with a transom and sidelights.
